This looks good to me. I approve for Angeles as well.

John and David,
I would like to add a quick blurb in our “Announcements and Key Topics” section to the HPNS website. The new text is below in purple. This is a shortened language from the cover email to Congressional offices about our CI letter to the Navy. In the website text, I’ll add hyperlinks to our posted comment letter.

John, who is acting for Angeles this week? Website changes are supposed to go through the ADs.
